

Asian Heritage Month Virtual Series
Tales of Two Cities: Wuhan & Honolulu
新雙城記：武漢與檀香山

Photography: Edwin Ho and Weiping Lu
 Poetry: Weiping Lu
 Moderator: Lien Chao

A Toronto couple departed for holidays in Honolulu on January 24th, 2020, coincidentally, on the same day, the city of Wuhan in China was shut down because of a novel coronavirus outbreak.

Retired English teacher Weiping Lu has woven her travelogue and snap-shots with photographs contributed by photographer Edwin Ho to create “Tales of Two Cities: Wuhan & Honolulu.” As personal and social records, this joint project helps the public keep our collective memories alive of the unprecedented suffering, deaths and economic loss worldwide caused by the COVID-19 Pandemic.

Bilingual poetry will be presented in English, Cantonese and Mandarin.

Opening Remarks with Mr. Justin Poy, Honorary Patron, Asian Heritage Month-CFACI.
